

Rosemont 138kV
Transmission Line Project

Future Land Use
Exhibit A-3

Legend

Land Use

- Commercial
- Industrial
- Parks/Preservation
- Public Lands
- Public/Quasi-Public
- Recreation
- Residential
- Santa Rita Experimental Range
- Utilities
- Vacant/Undeveloped

Status

- Plat Approved
- Zoning Approved
- Conceptual/General/Comprehensive Plan
- Future Use under the Mining Act
- Rosemont Operations - NEPA Process Ongoing

Notes: Conceptual/General/Comprehensive Plan Status land uses are guides for future land uses as defined by Pima County and the Town of Sahuarita and may not reflect actual development. Uses without a development status, as shown above, are considered existing land uses.

Project Features

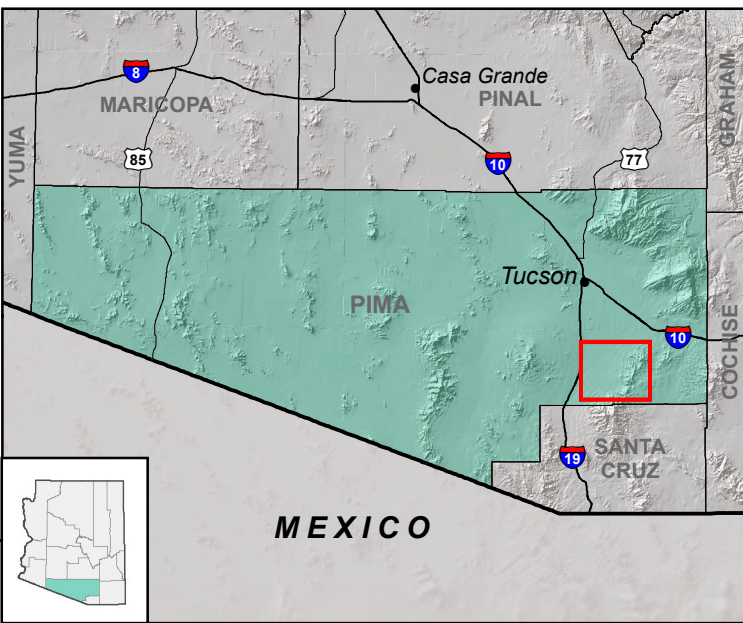

- Substation or Switchyard Site
- Breaker Site
- Proposed Water Pipeline Alignment
- Project Study Area Boundary

- Link Identifier
- Reference Centerline of Alternative
- Milepost Identifier
- Link Node

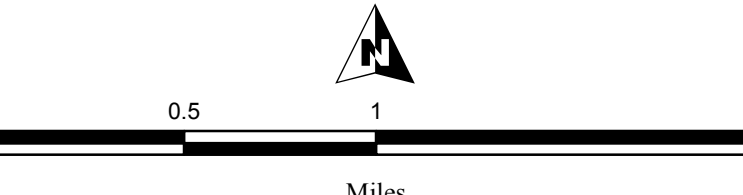

General Reference Features

- Santa Rita Experimental Range Boundary
- U.S. Forest Service Boundary
- Bureau of Land Management Boundary
- Township Boundary
- Section Boundary
- 345kV Transmission Line
- 230kV Transmission Line
- 138kV Transmission Line
- 115kV Transmission Line
- 46kV Transmission Line
- Interstate
- Highway
- Secondary Road
- Railroad
- Arizona Trail - Existing
- Arizona Trail - Conceptual
- River/Wash

Vicinity Map

Sources: StreetMap USA 2011; TEP 2011; University of Arizona, Santa Rita Experimental Range 2011; EPG 2011

Contour interval = 20 ft.

November 2011

